

Visual Disabilities Program at Northern Illinois University

We are searching for a qualified individual to fill a vacant position in the Visual Disabilities Program at Northern Illinois University. The official ad follows. If interested individuals have questions or wish more information, do not hesitate to contact Gaylen Kapperman (gkapperman@niu.edu) or Jodi Sticken (jsticken@niu.edu). We have some very exciting plans "in the works!!" Ask us about them! go to our page to find out more about our program at www.vision.niu.edu

Special Education.

Assistant Professor, Visual Disabilities: Full-time beginning August 16, 2010. Responsibilities: Teaching undergraduate and graduate courses in the areas of visual disabilities and orientation and mobility; conducting research and writing grants appropriate to his or her scholarly interests related to the position; advising graduate students; and involvement in department, college, and university service. Required: Earned doctorate in Special Education by time of appointment; a minimum of three years of teaching experience in special education for students with visual disabilities and/or orientation and mobility; and a record of scholarship in areas related to the position. Preferred: Priority will be given to candidates who have experience teaching both undergraduate and graduate courses, experience procuring grants, and substantial experience working with people who have visual disabilities. Submit: Letter of application, current vitae, two current original letters of reference specific to this position, and copies of graduate transcripts (official transcripts are required prior to hiring) must be sent to Special Education Visual Disabilities Search, Department of Teaching and Learning, Northern Illinois University, DeKalb, IL 60115. FAX 815-753 8594. Electronic applications must be sent to Ruthann Yeaton, ryeaton@niu.edu. For additional information, see <http://www.cedu.niu.edu/tlrm> or contact Dr. Gaylen Kapperman (gkapperman@niu.edu). Desired contract starting date is August 16, 2010. Review of complete applications will begin on March 15, 2010 and continue until the position is filled. AA/EEO